

Latest INF World Rankings up to December 11th, 2016

St Maarten gains first World Ranking

The INF has updated its rankings to reflect matches played between the 23rd October and 11th December. This includes matches from the Test Series between England and Jamaica and the Test Series between St Lucia and St Maarten.

Following this activity, there is no change to the ranking for the top 10 teams. However, Jamaica (4) draws closer to England (3) as a result of the 2:1 series win.

Amongst the other changes to the table include St Lucia who move up two places to 21 and St Maarten who gain their first World Ranking coming in at 31.